

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ANNUAL AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

The College of Education Teaching Award Committee is soliciting nominations for the College of Education Annual Award for Excellence in Teaching. This award has been established to encourage, identify, recognize, reward, and support outstanding teaching within the College of Education. Nominations are to be based upon sustained excellence of teaching in courses offered by the College. The award, which includes a $1,000 stipend and an engraved plaque, will be presented at the April meeting of the College of Education Faculty/ Staff.

Nominations are solicited from faculty, staff, students, and alumni and are based upon the following criteria:

1. The nominee must hold a full-time faculty appointment in the College of Education at UNC Charlotte.
2. The nominee must have regularly taught in the College for at least four years.
3. The nominee must be teaching during the academic year in which he or she is nominated.
4. No faculty member will be eligible to receive the award more than once.

To nominate a faculty member for this award, please submit a brief letter of nomination (electronic submission preferred), addressed to the Committee, to the Dean's Office, College of Education, no later than 5 p.m. January 16, 2009.

The Teaching Award Committee will review nominations to ensure that the eligibility requirements are met and then ask each nominee to submit a portfolio of materials for review by February 27, 2009.

The members of this year's Teaching Award Committee are Pam Lassiter (CSLG), Jim Watson (EDLD), Scott Kissau (MDSK), Hal Jaus (REEL), Deana Deason (SPCD), and Mary Lynne Calhoun (ex officio).
